Children will feel refreshed while playing on the Morning Side Playground. The long layout of this unit encourages complete exploration in a flowing manner. Kids have the option to not go with the flow by sticking with the ground activities. A Store Panel invites children to open up their own little business and work their creative muscles. The Ship's Wheel is sure to entice young "pirates" who crave some high seas shenanigans. The Pod Climber and Snake Climber take children to the most fun part of the structure: the Triple Wave Slide. Being the focal point, every child, whether clambering up from the Transfer Station or the Rock Hole Climber, will eventually want to get there. This massive slide can hold up to three riders at one time. This effectively motivates social and competitive play; turning fun trips to the playground into a hangout session with potential friends. The Morning Side Playground is a homey and welcoming structure that will greet you like the early morning sun.
