Crawl through the treehouse-themed Adventures In Sherwood Playground. This structure is brimming with activities needing to be discovered. The Paw Print Climber and Bamboo Arch Climber make traversing this forest getaway a treat. A Tube Bridge connects the Double Wave Slide, Right Turn Slide, Tic Tac Toe Panel, and Bubble Panel to the climbers. The fluidity of this layout allows for easy travel through this bandit's hideout. It also keeps children preschool-age and up curious to explore. There is much to do on the ground as well; with the Stump Window Panel for imaginative play and the Elephant Crawl Through Panel adding to the crawling motif of this exciting play structure. The Adventures in Sherwood Playground is the perfect size to keep multiple children entertained at once; allowing social skills to grow and mature. Kids will make this their treehouse home for hours on end.
