The Bailey's Journey Play System is as beneficial as it is fun. This structure will help kids improve their arm strength, leg strength and sensory skills. The Snake Climber, Inverted Arch Ladder, Vertical Ladder and Overhead Straight Rung Horizontal Ladder provide children with an upper body workout that is sure to get them sweating. The Single Drum and Rain Wheel give auditory feedback that makes experimentation fun. Running through the Bailey's Journey Play System is as exciting as it looks. Its fluid design allows getting from the Overhead Straight Rung Horizontal Ladder to one of the two Right Turn Slides, that can be ordered in single or multi-colored combinations, an addictingly joyous time. This unit is meant for multiple kids playing at a time and is sure to make any playground a memorable experience for all involved. So get your play shoes laced and get ready for an adventure!
