It is not secret that children love to be loud during play time. The Freestanding Bongos Panel is the perfect outlet for making noise! Three brightly colored bongos are featured on this panel and each bongo emits a different sound. The whimsical music notes at the top and bottom of the panel frame the bongos. Place this panel with other music panels and children will be able to create their own band! The Freestanding Bongos Panel is designed for children ages 2-12.
