If you have a large outdoor area for sitting or dining, you need a table that can provide you with plenty of seating. This Regal with Back Rectangular Portable Table by Webcoat comes in two sizes so you can accommodate your needs: a six-foot and an eight-foot-long table. The seats' backs make seating more comfortable and convenient. Your guests will no longer be forced to sit hunched over the table when they have full back support, and they are all sure to thank you for the consideration. This table is designed to provide the durability and visual allure you have come to expect from Webcoat picnic tables, and you will appreciate the strength and long-lasting appeal for years to come. You can choose from an array of beautiful colors that will allow you to create your own unique outdoor décor. Make this table unmovable by adding an in-ground or surface mount (sold separately).
