Inspire their most energetic play times with the Bridge to Coronado playground. Capable of providing from 28-32 kids, ages 2-5 with some of the most creative and inspiring features, this recycled playground comes with a hefty warranty that ensures many years of enjoyment. One of the first things kids race for is the coil climber, but with the curved slide, chute slide, and wave slide, they soon head up to the platforms where a driving panel, and covered fort area are found. A game of tic-tac-toe is possible, too, and this playground also has DTD steps and an ADA transfer station to allow all kids to access it and enjoy it. With a lifetime warranty on the recycled posts and 15 years of warranty on most of the components, this is a play area that is made to endure. Available in stock colors it can be customized to your needs and style, and with a use zone of 36'x38' it can work in some smaller spaces too.
