Kids will be able to really let their imaginations soar with the Adventure Route playground. With its two towers fitted with shingled roofs, it is the ideal stage to create countless adventures. The bedrock climber, inclined rockwall, triple rail slide, and crawl tunnel all help to enhance the creative energy of this nicely sized space. Kids ages 2-5 can also spend lots of time playing tic-tac-toe or gliding down the curved slide to the spaces beneath. From 21-25 kids can enjoy this recycled playground that is use zone 36'x28'. Customizable color choices allow the playground to be as boldly and vibrantly colored as desired, or even to be very low key and discreet. With DTD steps and an ADA transfer station it is an accessible place for daydreaming and fun. With 15-year warranties on many of the components, and lifetime warranties on the recycled posts, this is a play space that is meant to endure and help generations of kids set out on adventures.
