Goody Two Slides Play System is an adventure come to life. Offer kids a chance to discover fun new ways to play. This unit is available for quick shipping in our primary and neutral color schemes. If a custom color is more your style, the shipping times will increase, so talk to a sales representative about your options. This structure has multiple levels for children to enjoy. The Ship's Wheel and Bench Panel offer ground level play, requiring no great physical exertion, facilitating many diverse ways to play for many ages and abilities. The bench supplies a child a place to relax and the Ship's Wheel makes a captain out of any curious adventurer. Scaling the Sea Creature Climber or Pea Pod Climber gets kids to the core of this unit and provides a more challenging feature for the bravest kiddos. At the top, they'll be rewarded with two amazing slides, a true childhood favorite on the playground. And they can't miss the gear panel, a classic play element that fosters beneficial early STEM education in a fun and playful way. The Goody Two Slides is an unbeatable play system full of kid-approved components.
