The Three Prongs of Neptune is a mighty play structure, which gets its name from the prominent trio of 5-foot tall slides, which diverge in three directions to form a familiar trident shape. The Ship's Wheel at the base of the slides, Bubble Window Panel, and the Sea Creature Climber with nautical-shaped hand grips add to the aquatic theme of the structure. There is also a shorter Double Wave Slide, for children who want a less intense ride or want to race a friend. The Tic Tac Toe Panel offers another fun activity which can be enjoyed with friends, and the Single Drum below it offers an outlet for children who want to make some music - or just some noise. The color scheme shown in the images on this page fit the oceanic theme nicely, but other custom color choices can be specified when ordering this play system.
