For kids too young for school, who still long for the experience of a morning bus ride, the Rockin Time School Bus is just for them. This new spring bouncer sports 3 rows of benches, all designed from commercial grade HDPE plastic to ensure both safety for kids and durability for owners. Rest assured that this structure is a sound investment that will characterize your playground, park, or schoolyard for many years to come. Plastic steering wheels situated in front of each row of benches offer kids the impression that they're in control, even if they can't get in the front seat. This package now includes with in-ground stakes for permanent installation.
