The Rock N Cross is a multifunctional piece of play equipment. The one of a kind design combines a climbing structure with a seesaw. A spring loaded curved arch with seats on either side, children can sit and bounce. Children will learn cooperation as they work together to make it move. In the middle, there is a climbing apparatus. As children bounce, another child can climb or hang from the center. Children will improve their core and upper body strength as they clamber across. The Rock N Cross is a multipurpose piece and is an economical piece offering a variety of play opportunities.
