Nothing stirs childlike wonder and provides a backdrop for storytelling quite like a charming footbridge. With this sweet and sturdy movable Arch Bridge in a deep walnut color, the possibilities for imaginative play are endless. Place it over a shallow creek and children are transported into a world of whimsy while remaining dry and clean from the water's touch. Or, plant this beautiful bridge in a garden or backyard, and it is an interesting and inviting piece that adds an element of quaintness while adding dimension to your child-friendly green spaces. This table is made of 100% recycled structural plastic, so you can have an ease of mind knowing what your table is made of and that it is helpful to the environment. Its large pickets are supportive, yet spaced closely together for maximum safety and security. Trolls and fairies not included.
