Bring out the organic farmer in your child with our quaint and charming Fruit Stand—the perfect setting for hours of healthy, imaginative amusement. With its fetching striped awning and lifelike illustrations of fruits and vegetables, The Fruit Stand engages children in cooperative storytelling. And, as an added bonus, its functionality helps kids to establish positive frameworks around healthy eating, encouraging the consumption of fresh produce. With the Fruit Stand, children are able to act out the roles of farmer and shopper, and learn important lessons about what it means to be a responsible consumer. Perfect for school playgrounds, recreation centers, and family markets, it may be freestanding or attached to a wall and is ADA accessible.
