Take your performance space to the next level with this handsomely-crafted outdoor Drama Deck with Roof. Featuring a classic design, and made from 100% recycled structural plastic, it's the perfect theater to shelter actors of all ages and ability levels from any inclement weather without compromising style. Plus, with its versatile design, the Drama Deck can also be used as a picnic area, ceremonial pavilion, and much more. ADA accessible, the Drama Deck with Roof is constructed of industrial-strength plastic in hunter green, mahogany, and khaki, and can be customized or edited to include a garden trellis and optional shade. This modern stage is safe for children as young as 6 months and comes easy-to-install. Add costumes, and voilà! A space for magic and fun.
