Kids will get a kick out of experimenting with water in the great outdoors and splashing all summer long with our Water Table. Watch children erupt in giggles as they frolic and create, assembling pool toys on the table and building with water-proof blocks, sand, and found objects. The height allows kids of all ages and abilities to join in on the aquatic fun, and the table fits up to five kids comfortably. Perfect for children ages two to five and older, the Water Table comes in a handsome royal blue shade and is constructed of durable, weather-resistant recycled plastic.
