There's no place like home with this lifelike imaginary playhouse. Our whimsical hunter green playhouse provides the setting for endless hours of imaginary play, while tons of windows bathe the structure in natural light. Windowsills and counter space offer surface areas for tea parties, herb and flower potting, and displaying books and toys. The play structure features a beautiful box gable roof, sturdy construction, and fits four to six kids. The five-foot by five-foot playhouse boasts white trim and comes with a warranty. The playhouse is ideal for children two to five and older and is built to withstand years of everyday use.
