Transform your backyard into a chic, rustic homestead with the Standard Playhouse. The log cabin features a carefully-constructed gable roof covering the open-air playhouse, and a raised platform provides plenty of room for children to engage in imaginative play. The sleek, open design allows parents and caregivers to supervise comfortably from a distance. The Standard Playhouse makes a fantastic addition to your playground, schoolyard, or garden, with a height specially designed for children ages two to five. Kids will delight in the playhouse's attention to detail and authenticity and can pretend to be pioneers, homemakers, and fairytale characters from an enchanted wood. The playhouse's use zone is 19'0" x 16'6," and the structure fits up to four or five children.
