The classic, elegant Three Sided Arbor by Big Toys gives preschool-aged children a great place to meet, make friends, sit, and play together all under a protective wood awning. The benches on three sides of the structure offer extra seating for those who would rather not get down and dirty on the ground. Constructed from weather-resistant wood and hardware, the Three Sided Arbor is able to stand up to the elements and everyday wear and tear, so it'll be able to provide a quality place for children to rest or play for years to come. The arbor is spacious and acts as a stylish focal point for your space, whether it's a kid's park, preschool playground, or the backyard of a daycare. If you need your arbor to accommodate a pathway, there is also the Pass Through Arbor available from Big Toys.
