With its open design, adorable hunter green and natural color scheme, and charming details, the Breezeway Playhouse provides a beautiful hideout for children to play, explore, and imagine. Floral cutouts in the roof add interest, while a wide green counter offers space to snack, pot plants and herbs, and create crayon and colored pencil works of art. The playhouse has enough room for four to six children to interact comfortably, with a play area measuring 19'0 x 17'0". Choose between metal and wood models to meet your specific aesthetic and weatherproofing needs. The Breezeway Playhouse boasts a scallop-edged roof, slight step-up platform, and a shady adventuring spot for kids of all ages and ability levels.
