The Expedition will have children exploring the limits of their imaginations while being physically active. This unique playground structure contains a wild assortment of different climbing activities that present a wide range of challenges. These provide well-rounded exercise which leads to increased muscle development and flexibility. The Expedition has many branching and multi-sided activities so that many children can use it at once while going at their own pace. The activities include a NaviClimb, Stretch Ring, X-Climber, Active Link, Inclined Climbing Wall, and two Suspended Playshells. Kids will have endless amounts of fun as they devise new ways to get from one part of the structure to another.
