Discover a world of sensory adventure with our Bead Sensory Box! When a kid reaches into the box, they'll find multiple shapes and colors, all of which spin and slide on an internal bar. This accessory is a perfect developmental tool to foster both social and independent play. With the Bead Sensory Box, kids will learn to play cooperatively and problem solve as a team. The top section of the box features slotted handles that make repositioning quick and simple. The Sensory Box measures 48" x 16" x 21" and is ideal for kids ages 6 - 23 months. It can entertain two to three children at a time and is the perfect addition to your classroom or playground.
