Head for the hills with this fun and engaging structure. Kids will enjoy stretching their legs and running across the platforms of the West Hills Playset. Featuring decks of multiple heights, Playshell Climbers, and a new, Exploratory Climber, the West Hills structure is chalk full of exciting accessories and physical challenges. Plus, it also includes highlights that promote dramatic and social play, like a BigWheel, DuoChute, and Xylophone. The West Hills is a large playset that can fit an entire class of up to thirty kids, and it has a use zone measurement of 31'10" x 24'2". And thanks to a wheelchair platform extension and board, the playset is ADA accessible, making it an ideal structure for children of all interests and ability levels.
