Escape to an inviting playset, boasting dual towers and a carefully-crafted wood structure, with the Habitat Jungle Gym. The Habitat has six engaging activities, and thanks to its space saving design, it's perfect for compact green spaces in parks, schoolyards, and day care centers. Made from 75% sustainably-sourced, Forest Stewardship Council Certified wood content, and featuring recycled plastic and scrap metal details, the Habitat is a nature-friendly choice, intelligently reusing materials. The Habitat model includes a Curved DuoChute Slide, Play Counter, Vertical Access Climber, Slide pole and Curly Step, Big Wheel, and Whistle. It is ADA accessible to fit up to twenty kids of all ability levels.
