Platforms of varying heights and interactive accessories encourage the development of gross motor skills and social play in the Commander Playset. This unique model is especially great for children ages two to five and is sure to provide hours of entertainment. Kids will flock to the playset's open-air design and variety of activities, including Playshell Traverse, Xylophone Enclosure, Bubble Panel, Playpod Traverse, Rock Climb, and DuoChute Slide. A wheelchair access point makes the structure ADA accessible and inclusive of kids of all ability levels. The Commander boasts a sustainable design, made from Forest Stewardship Council Certified recycled content, and it includes recycled plastic and scrap metal details. It measures 27'0" x 28'6" and comfortably accommodates up to 25 kids!
