Swing into a world of fun with the Compact PlayPod Traverse. The sturdy, controlled lateral and rotational movement of the mazes and traverses aids children in the development of their agility, strength, balance, and gross motor skills. Ideal for slightly older kids ages five to twelve, the PlayPod Traverse can fit up to seven people at a time and has a use zone of 24'2" x 16'5." The perfect accessory to large, multi-event play structures, it adds a great physical play element to any care center, playground, or schoolyard. Or, make the PlayPod Traverse a stand-alone play element and the focal point of your green space. Made from recycled plastic and metal materials, it's a sustainable vertical climbing choice for families and administrators concerned with their environmental footprint, and will withstand years of everyday use.
