Kids will have a blast pretending to go offroading on a safari adventure with this fun and charming Jeep! The lifelike structure serves as both a stationary playset for role-playing or a spring bouncer depending on your needs. Providing access from all sides, the jeep is ideal for playgrounds seeking to attract and accommodate patrons of all ages and ability levels. Featuring two fully functional steering wheels, the jeep is true-to-life, sturdy, and made from commercial-grade HDPE plastic to hold up to years of everyday use and inclement weather. Its design invites collaboration and social play, and this one-of-a-kind play accessory includes real tires, an open-concept layout, and plenty of handholds for security and dramatic play. Children will love “exploring” their neighborhood playground and spotting animals, landmarks, and familiar faces from inside the body of the car. Just add binoculars and kids will be set for their next trek!
