Plant a garden of blooming, magnificent sounds and sights with our musical Flowers. Each flower chime boasts a unique size, height, and color, with individual notes that ring out like meditative gongs. With their sculptural appearance and vibrant hues, these flowers are as decorative as they are functional. Each flower contains four different notes, with petals acting as separate chimes that ring together in harmony. Enchanting and therapeutic for the young and young at heart, our Flowers transform any green space or classroom into a whimsical nursery of sound, creativity, and color.
