Samba in Technicolor with this fun and inviting set of five outdoor drums. An incredibly popular product, our Samba collection creates a vibrant, pleasing atmosphere in your outdoor green space. Kids will love infusing their world with funky rhythms, working together to play danceable tunes. Designed for all ages and ability levels, the Rainbow Sambas enable kids and adults to create unique songs and rhythms, with drums suitable for music lessons, recess, and outdoor school performances. Other uses of the drums include music therapy and group play. Instill a love of music and creativity in your kids, while encouraging social play. This set will elevate any playground or park, making it an area that fosters imaginative and inventive play. The Sambas are available in our standard rainbow colors or, for an additional charge, you can design custom color combinations using the RAL color-matching service. Moreover, to meet the space's needs, these drums are available in both in-ground and surface mounts.
