Infuse your outdoor space with beautiful and resonant steel-drum tones with the large Babel Drum. Its gorgeous tones carry on the wind, creating soothing and enchanting melodies for all. Constructed from stainless steel, our Babel Drums belong to a family of percussion instruments including the Hand pans, Hank, Tank and Tongue Drums. The sustained melodies of the Babel will envelop the senses to create a relaxing environment in your playground, school, park, or museum green space. This larger, popular version features an eight-note layout in G-Major, and secure mounting keeps the Babel in place. Truly, it's an ideal instrument for permanent outdoor installation and everyday creative exploration. Usually played with hands, the Babel can also be struck with mallets to produce more sound for elderly patrons or special needs drummers. Great for novices and seasoned professionals alike, the Babel is sure to mesmerize audiences and bring out the inner musician in everyone.
