Towering yet accessible, the sculptural Tutti proves that three scales are better than one. This stunning piece delivers a diversity of bright sounds and deep, warm tones that awaken body and spirit. An outdoor xylophone, it essentially offers a triad of music, with enchanting scales composed of three different materials, securely fixed to a permanent post. It's the ideal instrument to entertain groups of students, park-goers, or clients seeking therapeutic musical outlets. Crafted from aluminum, GRP, and Paduak, when struck, each vibrates with beautiful, sustained tones that engage all the senses. A sleek and space-efficient design ensures easy installation. Part art piece, part creative outlet, the Tutti will have patrons playing and singing in the key of C and bring music lovers together. Please note that the scales featured include Aluminum Notes—C Major, Pentatonic C5-C7, GRP Notes—C Major, Diatonic G3-C5, and Hardwood Notes—C Major Pentatonic A3-A5.
