Enthusiastic children will excitedly patrol the playground with the 1 Seat Police Motorcycle Spring Rider. This sleek and snazzy spring rider stands out on any playground with its all black details. It's simple look will also complement any playground theme due to its monochromatic details. The details in this spring rider also adds to its attractiveness with its orange headlight on the front, foot pedals to help children mount the item, and front and back fenders. This spring rider has one seat, meaning only one child can ride at a time, but children will be eager to take turns pretending to be patrolling policemen and policewomen. As they are imagining that they are patrolling as officers of the law they are building their balance and coordination as well as developing their gross motor skills. Similar to a real life motorcycle they will feel the wind on their face as they rock back and forth on the 1 Seat Police Motorcycle Spring Rider.
