The Egg Whirler Sitting Spin Ride by Playground Equipment Dot-com comes to your playground straight from the future. It's whimsical extraterrestrial design will surely spark imaginative play and promote creative thinking. Maybe kids will try orbiting the earth in their space pod or pretend they've been ejected from a starship. Whichever way they choose to play, this ride is guaranteed fun for children of many ages. A large opening allows them to enter and exit with ease on this single-rider attraction. Openings around the perimeter of the pod allow riders to be able to see outside and parents to supervise their children inside. Additionally, these slots allow sunlight to enter the ride, a relief for kids who may feel uncomfortable in a dark or enclosed space. Try the classic color scheme pictured or explore the many color options for the molded plastic seat and metal mount that allow this spinner to be customized to suit any park, school or childcare facility.
