Just the right height for inquisitive kids, the Angeles Neptune Table and Lid Set is perfect for little ones who want to play with water and sand. The Neptune Table features a double basin, making it ideal for two or more children at once to play with the Angeles Neptune Table and Lid Set. The blue tub is supported by a sturdy steel frame, making it great for both indoor and outdoor use; additionally, the legs feature rolling wheels, which allow the Angeles Neptune Table and Lid Set to be mobile, regardless of where it's located. The basins are divided by a waterfall, allowing for further observation of the water flow, as well as the effect of water on sand.
