Kids can dive into a mythical world of fun at the Selkie's Swim, a brand new castle structure option from PlaygroundEquipment.com. This dazzling underwater paradise is fully equipped with many different unique and exciting features sure to inspire hours upon hours of imaginative play. There are play features both on the ground and upper levels of this structure, adding more room and diversity for the kids. There are several different ways to ascend and descend from the structure, including a themed drawbridge climber and even a castle rock wall. Once the adventurers have made it to the top of the Selkie's Swim play structure, they have two different ways to splash back down to the ground level with two different lengths of slide. No matter how they decide to play on the structure, kids will be sure to love splashing around in Selkie's Swim and using their imaginations to find all sorts of new and exciting ways to play.
