Raven's Refuge, a brand new castle structure option from PlaygroundEquipment.com, is a mystical structure sure to inspire kids for hours of imaginative play. There are many unique and exciting features for kids to interact with on this multi-leveled and multi-functional playground. On the ground level, there is a single drum, allowing for kids to make their own creative and rhythmic beats. Also on the ground level is a store panel, where kids can use their imagination to open up whatever kind of store they can think of! There are several different ways to climb to the top of the Raven's Refuge, including a draw bridge climber and a castle rock wall climber. Once they have reached the top, the kids can take flight down one of two exciting slides separated by a tube bridge. There are endless opportunities for creativity and play on this mythical structure. Kids are sure to enjoy taking flight on and around the Raven's Refuge!
