Minotaur's Maze is a play structure that's fit for kings and queens. Part of PlaygroundEquipment.com's Castle Series, Minotaur's Maze features several distinct avenues of play. On the ground, kids can find ample shade underneath the structure, where they'll also find a Bench Panel and a Store Panel. This area is a natural spot for kids to socialize with their friends and even stay out of the sun during the hot days of summer. Moving up Minotaur's Maze can be accomplished via the Draw Bridge Climber as well as the stairs. Awaiting young ones at the top will be the Right Turn Slide and a Double Slide, as well as a Castle Knight Panel. Once children are finished, they can whoosh back down to the ground and begin the fun anew.
