Perfect for parks, playgrounds, and other recreational areas frequented by children, Treetop Connection allows children to crawl through its tubes and hang out with friends in the enclosed middle area. Its tunnel passages offer loads of fun for kids on the playground, and its Stump Window Panels offer them a look into the outside world. Treetop Connection makes a great amenity for kids who wish to have their own 'fort' or just a centralized meeting place. This dwelling is made from rotationally molded plastic and anchored into the ground by 5-inch galvanized steel posts, which ensure that Treetop Connection will stand the test of time and remain a popular attraction on your playground for years to come. Whether a lone child wishes to use Treetop Connection for a brief respite, or a group of kids wants to use it as a gathering spot, they'll be having loads of fun with the help of Treetop Connection.
