Corner at the Palm is a unique and versatile play element designed for children ages 2-12 years. This commercial-grade playground equipment is made of high-quality materials that are built to last and can withstand heavy use in outdoor environments, and the palm tree topper provides some shade on hot, sunny days. With its vibrant colors and engaging design, Corner at the Palm will capture the attention and imagination of children who utilize it. Kids love having their own spot on the playground to hang out and commiserate with friends, and Corner at the Palm is exactly the sort of amenity children love to use as a social gathering place. With Corner at the Palm, you can turn a small area of your playground into a bonafide desert oasis that children will love.
