Kids will relish the sounds and vibrations made by the Musical Mushroom. The tone of the Musical Mushroom resembles that of a gong, but from a far smaller instrument. Each Musical Mushroom is capable of producing one note, making them ideal when placed together. A small, medium, and large Musical Mushroom, when used in concert, are capable of making a simple yet lovely melody for the entire playground to hear. Additionally, the Musical Mushroom works well with other playground instruments, and can function as an effective bass sound in the context of a larger playground overture. The Musical Mushrooms, especially when organized in an ensemble, will make wonderful, melodious noises in any outdoor environment when played at the same time. They inspire kids to create music and team up with their peers to make even more, making the Musical Mushrooms an invaluable addition to playgrounds that could use some musical flair.
