Great for helping kids soar above their peers, this 8 Feet High Arch Post Swing features two bays with a total of four swing seats for maximum outdoor fun. This swing set is great for use on outdoor playgrounds, in parks, schools, or churches, and is designed to stand the test of time so that kids can swing aboard it for years to come. Offering a contemporary design that fits well among various other pieces of equipment, the 8 feet high Elite Arch Post Swing will quickly become a staple of any outdoor space in which children come to play. Swings are a great way to help kids on the playground exert their energy in a healthy way; using their lower body and abdominal muscles, children will quickly learn to propel themselves upward and sail through the air with grace.
