Compact and chock full of fun, the Busy Bunny Infant Play Center is perfect for both indoor and outdoor play. Busy Bunny offers an abundance of cuteness and fun in a relatively small space. Featuring delightful baby bunny decorations on either side of the Play Center, these high-quality photos encourage children to explore and investigate. Once they crawl through the baby animal-adorned doorway, kids will catch a glimpse of themselves in the mirror panel. Behind them, they'll find an exciting amenity in the Bouncy Ball Spinner. Kids will love learning about cause and effect as they watch the colorful spheres dance around the spinning wheel. Meanwhile, the curved driving panel promotes further imaginative play, while the Geo Panel introduces kids to shapes. Young minds will be stimulated thanks to all the amenities present in the Busy Bunny Infant Play Center.
