Perfectly sized for young children, the Monarch Infant Play Center boasts a number of exciting play elements that little ones are sure to love. Kids love to get out and play, and what better way to help them than with a structure that's designed specifically for their age group? The Monarch Infant Play Center can be accessed via the small Infant Step, which comes with helpful handles, or with the Infant Rocky Ramp, which challenges little ones with a slightly inclined rock climbing panel. Once aboard the Monarch Infant Playset, kids will be able to make music with the Infant Chickadee Chime Panel, or discover new shapes with the Geo Panel. Once finished, they can whoosh back down to the ground using the Infant Slide, which comes with a decorative hood to add visual appeal.
