A day at the park has never been easier or more relaxing with the Jackson Bench. Utilizing a cast aluminum frame with a powder-coat finish, this bench is equal parts comfortable and durable. Those who traverse parks inevitably either get tired or simply wish to sit and take in their surroundings. Indeed, the natural beauty of parks is a sight to behold, and gazing up at the trees, birds, and other natural wildlife can be a relaxing experience. The Jackson Bench is just the amenity to facilitate such an experience, and with lengths of four, six, and eight feet, your park patrons will have more than enough space to accommodate themselves and anyone else they bring along to the park.
