The Durham Bench is the amenity to add if you want comfortable, intuitive seating in and around your park or indoor area. Available in lengths of four or six feet, the Durham Bench gives users a comfortable, aesthetically-pleasing spot to rest their legs after a leisurely walk around the park. Its powder-coat finish makes it resistant to the wear and tear of the outdoor elements, and with its cast aluminum frame, the Durham Bench will remain a staple of your park for years to come. Its curved legs make it a great aesthetic choice for parks and playgrounds alike, and its ample 4 feet or 6 feet of space will be able to handle visitors of all sorts. Whether kids need a break after dashing around the playground, or adults need to rest their legs after walking around the park, the Durham Bench is able to fit everyone's needs.
