Arranged neatly in almost a perfect square, Brewer's Hill is an all-in-one play structure that's equal parts fun and intuitively designed. Brewer's Hill features a thrilling mix of climbers and activity panels, which serve to stimulate children's physical and mental energy. For instance, the Ocean Climber gives kids the chance to ascend to the crest of Brewer's Hill; in a similar way, the Jungle Climber serves as a creative way for kids to climb up to the elevated portion of the structure. Both climbers offer a mix of sea and jungle animals to jumpstart kids' imaginations. For more advanced playground adventurers, the Pod Climber serves as a more challenging means to ascend the structure. Once elevated, kids can find their way back down to the ground using the Double Slide.
