The Raindrop Imagination Station is a play structure that packs a variety of creative amenities into a relatively small space. From its curved yellow Fish Stair to its red Chimney Roof, this play structure offers kids an experience like no other. Starting at the ground level, children can interact with the Rain Wheel, which twists and turns with ease, as well as the Bongos, which they can use to create a percussive rhapsody. A short trip up the Fish Stair will allow kids to engage in sensory activities using the Tic Tac Toe Panel and the Clock Panel, or gaze out at the world around them through the Window Panel and the See Through Panel. The Hard Hat Straight Slide is a natural way to whoosh back down to the ground, where kids can begin the fun anew.
