Create a trail, shape, or any sort of pattern you choose with the Pebble Path. Kids can hop along with their friends and tower above the rest of their peers as they hop, skip, and jump along the Pebble Path. This unique color combination is bright and instantly noticeable from a distance, and works well with a variety of existing color palettes. Kids who try out the Pebble Path will be instantly drawn to its intuitive, play-centric nature, and at heights of 16 inches or less, the Pebbles are safe for kids to jump onto. The Pebble Path can even become a spot for kids to hang out, as they can also sit on the Pebbles with their friends. There's no shortage of ways to use the Pebble Path to improve your playground experience.
