Built for active and thriving playgrounds, Liam's Leaps is a play structure with plenty to offer. Play structures are a great way to ensure that your playground has an instantly-noticeable centerpiece, and the bevy of amenities they boast will ensure that no kid who visits your playground will grow bored. The ground floor of Liam's Leaps offers a great combination of easily-reachable play elements, including the Single Drum and Bongo Drums for musically-inclined children. Ascending Liam's Leaps can be accomplished via the Disc Climber, the Pea Pod Climber, or the stairs, and once elevated, kids can take turns crawling through the Curved Tube Bridge or whoosh down any one of the structure's three slides. There's no shortage of fun to be had on Liam's Leaps, and kids who play on it are sure to remember their experience.
