Children love the distinctive design of the Mini Arch 2 Plastic Playground Climber, and it is ideal for any playground that kids from age 2-12 play at including daycare centers play areas, neighborhood parks, and preschool or elementary school playgrounds. This safe and challenging climber is great for children to play on and burn off energy during playtime. The climbing wall features the stylish and popular Tortoise climbing panels, which are fun, safe, and durable. The fun half-dome shaped structure inspires creativity and children enjoy having fun made up adventures with their friends as they play. The mini size of the climber makes it a great place to learn and develop climbing skills. The durable material used when producing the Mini Arch Plastic Climber is designed to endure years and years of heavy playground use, and will resist fading.
