What kid wouldn't want to take the Harry Hopper Fun Bounce for a ride? This adorable fun bounce is designed to look like a very happy grasshopper. It comes embellished with bulging eyes, a molded plastic smile and two large jumping green legs that is sure to brighten up any child's day. Its approachable design allow younger children to instinctively piece together its function; making hopping on and going for a bounce a breeze. The galvanized steel handles keep children balanced and stationary as they rock back and forth. Also, this unit encourages imaginative play; turning kids into insect-size people in a grasshopper rodeo. This adorable bouncer has more possibilities revealed the longer it is played on. So hop on and enjoy the ride.
